Content description	Teacher : Simon Lamunière, artist, curator, Geneva Launched in 2000, Art Unlimited is Art Basel's pioneering exhibition platform for projects that transcend the classical art-show stand - including video projections, large-scale installations, massive sculptures and live performances. Selected by the Art Committee, it has been curated since its inception by artist and curator Simon Lamunière from Geneva. During the installation period in Hall 1 at the Basel exhibition area, Simon Lamunière will talk about curatorial practice and artistic projects to be exhibited for Art Unlimited 2009. There will be exclusive insight views before the Art Unlimited opens, talks with artists and persons from art business. The cours will be held in english, french and german inputs possible.
Remarks	Where to go ? The cours will be held at Art Unlimited, Hall 1, Basel exhibition area, (Tramway 14 or 6 till exhibition square)
